Note 1: From 1 April 2016, higher rates of SDLT apply on purchases of additional properties by individuals. This rate is also payable by companies and other entities.

Note 2: From 1 April 2021, non-UK residents purchasing a residential property in England and Northern Ireland will be subject to a 2% SDLT surcharge in addition to the main rate SDLT payable by UK residents.

Note 3: Higher rates do not apply while replacing main residence, subject to meeting certain conditions or for purchases under £40,000.

SDLT for first-time buyers from 23 September 2022 - 31 March 2025 (note 4)	Rates of tax
Up to £425,000	Nil
Next portion from £425,001 to £625,000	5%
Remaining amount above £625,000	Standard rates apply

SDLT for first-time buyers from 1 July 2021-22 September 2022	Rates of tax
Up to £300,000	Nil
Next portion from £300,001 to £500,000	5%
Remaining amount above £500,000	Standard rates apply

Note 4: From 23 September 2022, first-time buyers are eligible to apply for a relief for properties up to the value of £625,000. If the property price is over £625,000, existing SDLT rates apply on the full price as described in the above tables. These temporary changes are implemented until 31 March 2025 via the Stamp Duty Land Tax (Temporary relief) Act 2023.

Note 5: Sliding-scale rates do not apply when residential property is acquired by certain corporates and 'non-natural persons' (companies, partnerships with a company as a partner and collective investment schemes) for more than £500,000. Instead, these entities pay a flat rate of 15% SDLT (17% for non-UK resident entities), subject to relief for qualifying activities or bodies. 'Non-natural persons' may also be subject to the Annual Tax on Enveloped Dwellings (ATED) regime.
